

EVERYTHING HAS GONE REPUBLICAN

Wisconsin Is Back Again In The Republican Fold.

UPHAM IS ELECTED BEYOND ANY DOUBT BY 40,000.

Chairman Wall Admits Their Defeat By that Plurality—New York, Illinois, Nebraska and Many Other States Also In Line—218 Republican Congressmen Secured.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Reports from all over the country only indicate increased majorities for republicans. They will have a majority of about sixty in the house of representatives. There were many surprises. One of the latest is that the republicans elect the state ticket in Missouri and three congressmen in Kentucky, defeating Wilson, West Virginia and Herman of Indiana.

Democrats probably carry California for governor. In Illinois the republicans carry the state by seventy thousand, and the entire congressional delegation with but one exception. In New York the republicans get thirty-one out of thirty-four congressmen. Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, North Dakota, Montana, Washington, Kansas, Colorado, Iowa and Idaho are all republican.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—According to the Chicago Tribune's Washington correspondent Chairman Faulkner of the democratic congressional committee concedes the republicans forty majority in the next congress. The republicans will have at least 205 to 151 of opposition, including both democrats and populists, in the next house. This assures the control of twenty-seven states, a clear majority in case the election of President should be thrown into the house.

This majority represents a gain of sixty to seventy-five seats. Besides this it is hoped to gain senators in West Virginia, Delaware and New Jersey, and to save Wyoming, Illinois, Nebraska and Colorado.

It was claimed by enthusiastic republicans late last night that not a single district has yet been dropped from the list. New York state shows up with twenty-four to twenty-five republican congressmen, Wisconsin with eight, Indiana with eight and Illinois with sixteen. In Michigan the republicans elect a solid delegation. Iowa will have not more than one democrat in the next house and perhaps a solid republican delegation. Ohio elects sixteen republicans at least, while Pennsylvania will have twenty-six republicans. The democratic party managers do not admit the claims of the republicans, but heavy republican gains are freely conceded.

Returns by the Associated Press show a congressional gain for the republicans of 56. These gains are distributed as follows: West Virginia, 3; New York, 12; Massachusetts, 4; Maryland, 3; Kentucky, 2; Pennsylvania, 5; Illinois, 5; New Jersey, 3; Connecticut, 3; Kansas, 1; Ohio, 6; Indiana, 1; North Carolina, 1; Rhode Island, 2; Michigan, 3; Colorado, 1; Wisconsin, 1; total, 56.

THE FULL RETURNS.

Republicans Claim to Have Elected 218 Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The republicans will control the next house of representatives by a large majority, though the exact figures can not be given. At midnight last night Secretary McKee of the republican congressional committee gave out the following estimate of republican congressmen elected so far as heard from:

Alabama.....	2	Nebraska.....	1
California.....	5	New Hampshire.....	1
Colorado.....	1	New Jersey.....	3
Connecticut.....	4	New York.....	25
Delaware.....	1	North Carolina.....	3
Idaho.....	1	North Dakota.....	1
Indiana.....	1	Ohio.....	17
Illinois.....	16	Oregon.....	2
Iowa.....	11	Pennsylvania.....	24
Kansas.....	1	Rhode Island.....	2
Kentucky.....	3	South Carolina.....	1
Louisiana.....	3	South Dakota.....	1
Maine.....	4	Tennessee.....	3
Maryland.....	2	Vermont.....	2
Massachusetts.....	13	Virginia.....	3
Michigan.....	13	Washington.....	2
Minnesota.....	12	West Virginia.....	3
Missouri.....	4	Wisconsin.....	8
Montana.....	1	Wyoming.....	1
Nebraska.....	5

The New York estimate does not include Brooklyn. The total claimed by the republicans is 218.

NEW YORK.

Morton Said to Have the Empire State by 145,435 Plurality.

APHANY, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Morton's plurality in the state is put by the republicans at 145,435. Saxton over Lockwood, 134,170; Haight over Brown, 131,704. If these reports are correct Levi F. Morton, the republican candidate, goes into office with a plurality which will exceed 150,000. The Everett

P. Wheeler movement did not have any material effect on the ticket, for his vote outside of New York and Kings was small and did not exceed a total of 4,000. The prohibition vote was smaller than usual, and the people's and social labor parties did not make any inroads.

The assembly is claimed by the republicans by more than two thirds. The senate, which holds over from last year, also has a two third majority, according to meager returns thus far received. The constitutional amendments, which reappointment the state, provide for canal improvement, and a revision generally, are adopted.

In the legislature the figures stand, according to latest returns: Republican, 83; democratic, 43. The last legislature was: Republican, 76; democratic, 52. This is the first time the republicans have controlled the legislature of the state since 1881.

The present delegation in congress from this state consists of nineteen democrats and fifteen republicans. The delegation in the Fifty-fourth congress will be composed of twenty-seven republicans and seven democrats.

NEBRASKA.

Fusion Governor Probably Elected—Bryan May Have Been Defeated.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 7.—Judging from a careful estimate of election returns Holcomb, fusionist, has been elected governor by several thousand over Majors, republican. Republicans are hopeful of isolated district returns cutting this down to less than 1,000 plurality. The rest of the republican state ticket is probably elected. Bryan, for United States senator, received an immense vote, probably two thirds of the entire vote cast. But the republicans claim sufficient strength in the legislature to organize in spite of combined populist-democratic influence, and say this large vote will be of no material benefit to Bryan. This means John M. Thurston or Gov. Crouse will be the next United States senator. The Associated Press says at 11 o'clock the situation shows the republican strength about equal to the fusion combination with nineteen doubtful districts that may go either way to hear from. Returns received up to 11 o'clock last night indicate the election of Holcomb for governor by from 5,000 to 10,000 plurality.

LOUISIANA.

Republicans and Populists Will Not Land Any Congressmen.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 7.—Contrary to every prediction the election in Louisiana was held without bloodshed or serious trouble in any quarter. The vote everywhere was light, there being really no necessity for work on the part of the democrats in either the Fourth, Fifth, or Sixth districts, where the principal opposition candidates were populists, with scattered support. In the city the sugar planters' sympathizers to a large extent refrained from voting, while the labor candidates received only trifling mention in the returns. Senator Blanchard wires the democratic headquarters at Washington that Louisiana sends a solid democratic delegation to congress.

INDIANA.

The Returns Come in Slowly, but Republicans Claim the State.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—Indications, though by no means full, are that Indiana has gone republican by at least 20,000, though the republican managers confidently claim 50,000. They claim the election of every one of their thirteen congressional candidates. There is no question as to the whole state ticket; even the democrats have given up hope for that. The republicans claim both branches of the legislature. The democrats concede the state by 20,000, though they express hopes of saving four congressmen—Bretz in the Second, Stockslager in Third, Holman in Fourth, and McNaghy in the Twelfth. In the Seventh district Congressman Bynum, democrat, is beaten.

KANSAS.

Jerry Simpson's Defeat Claimed by Republicans, but Denied.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 7.—The returns from Kansas were so meager at 11:30 p. m. last night it is impossible to predict the result with certainty. Seat-tering reports from different parts of the state received at republican headquarters show republican gains, and the republican state central committee confidently claims the election of the entire state ticket by a majority of not less than 10,000. The Seventh district, in which the greatest interest is centered, is in doubt. The populists claim Jerry Simpson's re-election by a majority of 2,000, while the republicans claim Long's election by 1,000. No definite returns from legislative districts have been received. Both parties claim the election of a large majority of the house.

MICHIGAN.

Republicans Claim the State Nearly Solid for Their Party.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 7.—Michigan has gone republican by 50,000 plurality. That is the claim made by the republican state central committee. They also claim to have gained at least two congressmen.

The republican state central committee claim the state legislature by at least thirty majority on the dis-patches sent in by county chairmen. The democrats are not making any claims with the exception of Mayo for lieutenant-governor, whose election they claim by at least 10,000 majority. The democratic leaders are still hopeful that the full returns, which are slow in coming in, will change the confident predictions of the republicans.

OHIO.

Republicans Claim State by 125,000—Seventeen Congressmen Assured.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 7.—While the republicans claim a plurality for Secretary of State Taylor of 125,000 to 130,000 the democrats concede the republicans have made large gains over the McKinley vote of last year and have possibly beaten the Brough high water mark of 1893. To an Associated Press reporter who visited the state democratic committee rooms at 10:30 o'clock last night, Allen Thurman said: "Ohio will give the republicans 120,000 and twenty-one congressmen. Republicans claim the defeat of Tom Johnson for congress by at least 3,000."

MISSOURI.

Democrats Elect Their State Ticket by a Reduced Plurality.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 7.—Practically complete returns at midnight last night from the city show the election of the democratic city and legislative ticket with the exception of the sheriff and Circuit judges, three in number. From the state returns are meager. They show an average falling off of 30 per cent in the vote, equally divided between the two leading parties. As indicated by these returns Missouri's congressional delegation will stand 13 democrats and 2 republicans. Present indications are that the democrats have swept this city completely on city, state and congressional tickets.

IOWA.

Republicans Claim This State in Line With the Rest.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 7.—The republicans claim the state by 75,000. They claim their state ticket and ten out of eleven congressmen. At 11 o'clock last night Chairman Howard of said that they conceded the state to the democratic state central committee the republicans by 40,000 to 50,000 plurality, but he claimed the election of Hayes in the Second district by a majority of 3,000.

ILLINOIS.

The Entire Republican State Ticket Elected.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—While pluralities can not be given with exactness at this time it is certain that the republican state ticket has been elected in Illinois. The contest in the city of Chicago, so far as the state ticket was concerned, was far from close and the republican pluralities in outside counties added to the general result. On account of the number of tickets in the field the returns were necessarily slow. The same general statements that apply to the state ticket are true of the senatorial and legislative tickets. There are twenty-five holdover state senators. The odd numbered districts yesterday elected twenty-six new senators, but the democratic majority of the hold-over senators is not sufficient to overcome the republican majority of the new senators elected yesterday.

A number of democratic counties in the state elected their county tickets and in many instances sent democratic representatives to the legislature. The republicans will have a majority in both branches of the general assembly, assuring the election of a republican United States senator to succeed Shelby M. Cullom.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 7.—Estee, R., for governor, and all the republican candidates for state officers have been elected. An unusually large vote has been polled. No serious disturbances are reported. The republican chairman claims the republicans will carry the state by 20,000. San Francisco by 5,000, the legislature by a comfortable majority and get all the congressmen. The democrats dispute this and claim the state is almost equally divided. The election of Estee is conceded.

Massachusetts.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 7.—From the returns received up to 11 o'clock last night the indications are that Massachusetts has given Greenhalge, republican, a majority of 45,000, a gain of 10,000 over last year. Probabilities are that eleven out of the thirteen congressmen will be elected and that the lower house will easily have a republican majority. Massachusetts is likely to have a solid republican delegation in congress.

Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 7.—The polls closed at 7 o'clock last night and figures are slow coming in, only a few scattered reports having been received up to 9 o'clock. It seems likely that Gov. Nelson, republican, is re-elected by an increase over his plurality of two years ago. The labor vote has chiefly gone to the populists and that party has held most if not all of its former strength throughout the state.

In New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 7.—The vote in this state was light. The polls closed at 7:30. Republicans claim eight congressmen. The democrats concede them five congressmen and claim the other three. No estimate on assembly can be made as yet. Both republicans and democrats express confidence in the results. In Hoboken the democrats say that they are confident of carrying the city by about 1,500 majority.

Returns Slow from Connecticut.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7.—Owing to Monday night's storm returns from small towns are coming in slowly and in many instances it is doubtful if the vote will be in before this afternoon. Returns thus far heard from show slight republican gains and a large falling off in the country vote. Three republican congressmen and both branches of the legislature are claimed by the republicans.

North Dakota.

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 7.—Republicans claim the election to congress of Johnson by 10,000; also the election of Allin, republican, and the entire state ticket by 4,000 plurality. The legislature is republican. All over the state the fight was made on resubmission, and other interests were lost sight of. The republicans gained in Fargo, Grand Forks, Bismarck, and all other large towns, while in some country precincts the populists gained slightly.

Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 7.—Indications at 11 o'clock last night were that Brown, republican, has defeated Snodgrass, democrat, for congress in the Third district, Hamilton county and Chattanooga having given Brown an unexpectedly large majority. At democratic headquarters it is admitted the race for governor in this state is close, but the election of the democrat is conceded.

In New York City.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Grant's vote in the city is put at 3 a. m. at 106,042; Strong's, 148,669; Strong's plurality, 42,627. The assembly stands: Republicans, 99; democrats, 29; republican majority on joint ballot, 77. This is a gain of 23 republicans over last assembly. Twelve of these are in New York city. The full city vote for governor is: Hill, 127,700; Morton, 123,209; Hill's plurality, 4,491.

South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 7.—The indications thus far are that Evans, Tillamite for governor, is elected by 30,000.

Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 7.—The democrats have carried every congressional district in the state except the Seventh, which is in doubt, by majorities ranging from 1,000 to 6,000. In the Seventh, Howard, democrat, is pressing Denny, democrat, close and may defeat him.

Mississippi.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 7.—Returns from all districts of the state show that the seven democratic congressmen have been elected by good majorities. The populists made vigorous campaigns, but appear to have lost strength. The four prohibition candidates practically cut no figure. A light vote was polled.

WISCONSIN.

Badger State Goes Republican—Upham Defeats Peck.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 7.—The republicans have swept the state. Major William H. Upham of Marshfield will have a plurality of 25,000 to 40,000 over Gov. Peck. The returns are slow in coming in, but every one thus far received shows a democratic loss. Chairman Thom of the republican state committee figures a majority in both houses of the legislature. He said the republicans would elect nine of the ten congressmen.

Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The entire republican state ticket was elected in Pennsylvania by a great majority. Up to 11 o'clock last night returns from Philadelphia indicate a republican majority of 75,000 in the city. If the interior of the state goes the same way it will mean 250,000 for the republican ticket. The republicans have chosen, it is believed, at least twenty-four of the thirty congressmen in the state. At present the republicans have twenty members.

West Virginia.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—A dispatch to the republican committee from James W. Poe at Charleston, W. Va. says:

Wilson loses heavily. Dayton's election almost certain. Republicans elect a solid delegation to congress from West Virginia. Defeat of William L. Wilson is claimed by republicans. Democratic state committee here concedes nothing.

Idaho.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 7.—Reports seem to indicate the republicans will elect their state and legislative tickets by large pluralities. Many democrats are said to have voted the republican ticket for the purpose of crushing out the populists.

South Dakota.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Nov. 7.—The counting of ballots is slow and result on the legislature will hardly be known before night, but meager returns are being received from country districts. The republicans claim the election of their entire state ticket and two congressmen.

Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 7.—Republicans claim to have carried the state. The indications at 9 o'clock last night were that the full republican state and a majority of the republican legislature are elected, insuring the election of two republican senators.

Virginia.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—Returns up to 7 p. m. show democratic losses, but their ticket and delegation to congress is safely elected. The voting was quiet. The negroes did not turn out in as large numbers as usual.

Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 7.—Of Georgia's eleven districts ten certainly elect democratic nominees. The Seventh district also probably is democratic. The populists turned out strong.

Springer Defeated.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 7.—Major James A. Connolly is undoubtedly elected over William M. Springer in the Seventeenth congressional district.

Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 7.—The congressional election here was a tame affair and in marked contrast to that for state and county officers a month ago. The legislature will be democratic.

Texas.

GALVESTON, Texas, Nov. 7.—No definite figures for governor. Culberson, democrat, will be elected. Populists show gains. Figures can not be secured yet.

GIRLS GAIN A VICTORY.

Female Students at Lake Forest Given Two Days in the Gymnasium.

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Nov. 7.—The authorities of Lake Forest university have had under consideration for several weeks the plan of allowing the young women of the college to use the college gymnasium on certain days of the week. Now the athletic committee of the faculty has decided that on Monday and Thursday of each week the girls shall be allowed the use of the gymnasium and have physical training. Miss Anna Davies has been selected as physical instructor for the young women. On the days given to them all other students remain outside and more than fifty feet from the building. The privilege of sharing with the male students the gymnasium has been asked by the girls for the last two years, or since the building was erected, and they consider the granting of their petition a big victory for them.

Two Firemen Perish.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Nov. 7.—The tug Crusader, owned by the Grummond estate of Detroit, was burned today. Henry Billings and Charles Whiffen of Port Huron, firemen, were burned to death.

FORT MCKINNEY ABANDONED.

Eighth Infantry Ordered to Fort Russell and Robinson.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Gen. Brooke, commanding the department of the Plate, has issued an order for the abandonment of Fort McKinney, Wyo. The troops of the Eighth infantry are ordered to Fort D. A. Russell, and Troop C Ninth cavalry, to Fort Robinson, Neb. The post quartermaster and twenty-five enlisted men will remain to close up affairs. Capt. Andrew H. Russell has been ordered from Chicago, Ill., where he has been on duty pertaining to the World's Columbian Exposition, to duty at Rock Island arsenal, Illinois.

Mercier Threatens to Quit.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—The standing parliamentary committee on military affairs has voted unanimously that the government's plan to let 12,000 soldiers go before completing their full time is inopportune and reprehensible. The committee also voted, with only three dissenting voices, that the step would be illegal. Gen. Mercier, minister of war, to the deputation informing him of the committee's decision that the plan was the cabinet's, and not his entirely.

Smallpox in Joliet.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 7.—The state board of health has received a report from the health officers at Joliet stating that smallpox had made its appearance in that city. But one case had developed, and that one was promptly sent to the pest house. No outbreak is anticipated.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 7.—Two more deaths have occurred from smallpox at Walkerton, this county.

THE EAST CHILLED BY HOWLING GALES.

BLIZZARD RAGES ALL OF LAST NIGHT IN NEW ENGLAND.

Telegraph and Telephone Wires All Down and Communication with Outside World Almost Completely Cut Off—Heavy Fall of Snow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Almost complete prostration of the telegraph and telephone services exists in New England as the result of Monday night's furious storm, which swept over that section of the country, it being particularly heavy along the coast. Up to 11 a. m. the postal company had no wires to Boston, Springfield or Providence, and the Western Union was in a similar plight with respect to Boston, but had a slow wire to Springfield and one to New Haven. The Long Distance Telephone company was able to get only as far as Bridgeport, Conn. At midnight word was received from New Haven that the wind was blowing seventy-two miles an hour. No reports of disasters, if any, by land or sea, have been received. Large forces of line-men from the various companies are hard at work and at 5 p. m. the Postal had one wire working as far as Springfield, but they did not expect to go any further east before to-night. The difficulty in their way is the prostration of telegraph poles, and notwithstanding they have a large force of men covering the entire ground, they can make but little headway. The Western Union company's lines are in trouble east of New Haven, and it is not likely that communication over their lines will be established as far east as Boston before this afternoon.

Hartford was the center of the storm Monday night. The streets yesterday presented an appearance of devastation never before equaled. Almost every telegraph and telephone is down and the streets are filled with wires of all sorts. The storm struck there about 9 o'clock Monday night and within half an hour communication with the outside world was completely shut off. H. F. Ludwig, a saloon-keeper, was killed by an electric wire. Reports from Meriden and New Haven show that those cities were similarly affected.

The storm of New Haven proved a veritable blizzard. Telegraph and telephone companies lost all their wires and the service is still paralyzed. Between New Haven and Guilford, on the Consolidated road, 180 telegraph poles are down and there is no communication north or east by telegraph or telephone further than North Haven on the south and west. Bridgeport and New York are the only cities reached by wire. Seven and one half inches of snow fell Monday night, the heaviest fall in ten years. The lowest temperature during the night was 31 degrees above, but it was much warmer yesterday morning, when the weather was fair over Connecticut and the storm moved off toward the northeast.

A report from Cape May, N. J., that eight fishermen in boats off Anglesea were blown to sea Monday night. Four returned yesterday and the others have not been heard from.

The storm in Boston and vicinity was confined to heavy rains until about 10 o'clock Monday night, when the temperature became lower and snow began to fall. The government weather bureau has experienced much difficulty in obtaining news about the weather from outside points, particularly to the eastward, because of the violence of the storm in that direction, the telegraph wires being down. A heavy snow storm prevailed all night in the vicinity of Concord, N. H., Portland, Maine, and Montpelier, Vt. A report from Springfield states that a heavy snow prevails there and is hourly becoming worse. The storm was first reported at Fallsville in the northwestern part of Connecticut. The wind and snow-storm were more severe there than at any other place in the state. The snow moved gradually to the eastward toward evening. The Southern New England Telephone company suffered immensely in consequence of the storm.

Dispatches from Rouse's Point, Plattsburg, Au Sable Forks, Westport, Walton and other points in New York, all the Lake Champlain valley state that it stormed hard Monday night. A heavy snow storm has raged in the vicinity of Saranac lake all night. It is now four inches deep, which will make the roads deep in mud and almost impassable.

Steamer Amsterdam Has a Hard Time.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Netherlands American line steamer Amsterdam arrived yesterday morning from Rotterdam after a most tempestuous passage. It was unable to call at Boulogne for its passengers owing to a heavy gale from the west and southwest and a high sea running in the channel. Oct. 30 and 31 it experienced a cyclone and strong gales were experienced up to Nov. 5, when the ship ran into another hurricane lasting four hours. The storm was accompanied by vivid lightning and heavy rain. St. Elmo's fire was seen at the mastsheads for fully fifteen minutes. The vessel received no damage.

POPE GIVES ITALY A RAP.

Sends Sympathy to an Editor Expelled for Offending the Government.

ROME, Nov. 7.—Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary of state, has, in the name of the pope, written a letter to Editor Boeglio, who was recently expelled from Italy for publishing in his paper, the Moniteur de Rome.

ALL LEGISLATORS ARE REPUBLICANS

CONGRESSMAN, SENATOR AND ASSEMBLYMEN SUCCESSFUL.

Henry A. Cooper Goes Back to Washington, H. C. Putnam Is State Senator and Assemblymen are E. F. Hansen of Beloit, S. S. Jones of Clinton and Hon. Fenner Kimball.

For Assemblyman (1st Dist.) E. F. HANSEN of Beloit.
For Assemblyman (2nd Dist.) S. S. JONES, of Clinton.
For Assembly (3d Dist.) FENNER KIMBALL, of Janesville.
For Senator (17th Dist.) H. C. PUTNAM, of Green.

Janesville, Rock county and the First Congressional district will be represented in the legislative halls this winter by republicans.

The re-election of Henry A. Cooper to congress is a fitting compliment to him and the fact that it was by an increased majority emphasizes it. Mr. Cooper's home county, Racine, swelled his vote a little more than the rest, showing that he stands highest where he is the best known.

H. A. COOPER.

Henry Clay Putnam of Brodhead, the state senator is a man well qualified for that position. He has held the office of assemblyman in that district for several years and his election to the higher office is a distinct recognition of his ability.

E. F. Hansen of Beloit, who will represent the First assembly district, is the city clerk of that city, and is a man widely known throughout Rock county as a man of great capabilities. He will make a most efficient representative and is entitled to all the praise that can be given him.

S. S. Jones, who is selected in the Second district is an excellent choice for the people. He is one of Clinton's substantial and influential farmers and a man possessed of the qualifications that go to make a splendid representative.

Hon. Fenner Kimball, who represents the Third district needs no introduction to Janesville people. He has lived in the city for years and not one word can be said against him. Many years service on the county board and a term or two in the legislature has familiarized him with the work and he will represent the district with honor to himself and the county.

News From Emerald Grove.

EMERALD GROVE, Nov. 6.—James Nelson of Rockford, has located in this place and is prepared to do all kinds of woodwork. He is a first class wheelwright and can do a No. 1 job. Bring him your repair work. Gillies & Jones are supplying their customers with warm goods, such as underwear, mittens and footgear, at prices that will bear inspection. The Ladies Aid society will give a "yellow tea" next Friday evening, November 9, at the home of William Duthie. Ladies furnish refreshments. E. M. Hyzer disappointed a fair-sized audience at this place Saturday evening, by not putting in an appearance. However, the audience listened to Adam Scott of La Prairie, who very likely made as much impression on his hearers as Mr. Hyzer would have done. James Lilburn has returned from a two weeks' duck hunting in the Horicon marshes. He reports plenty of ducks. J. A. Jackson of Palmyra was killed by a passing train at that place some two weeks ago. He will be remembered by many in this locality, having visited this place for about twenty-five years. Mr. Jackson was eighty-six years old. In spite of the stormy night, a large company visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lloyd and treated the family to a genuine surprise party Tuesday night. The visitors brought with them baskets well filled with eatables, which was enjoyed later on in the evening. Friends presented Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd with a full decorated dinner set and a reclining arm chair. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd will soon move to their new home in South East La Prairie.

Gossip from Shopiere.

SHOPIERE, Nov. 6.—The Sunday school convention held in this place on Sunday last was well attended. Mrs. Holmes will spend the winter in Janesville with D. Van Valen's family. Mr. Atkinson will move into the Hopkins house this week. Frank Culver will move onto his place. There is yet no hog cholera in this place. Owing to the wet weather there is not much corn husked yet. The corn is better than was expected at one time. Mrs. Randall has been visiting at Manchester the past week. Harry VanGelder fell from the ladder on the windmill last week and sprained his ankle severely. Ed. Branard and Tom Earl have gone north, trapping. A temperance play, "Under the Spell" will be given at the Fraternity hall, Friday evening, November 9, under the auspices of the I. O. G. T. Admission fifteen cents.

Misery After Meals.

The oppressive embargoes levied upon the innocent by his inveterate enemy, dyspepsia, after meals, are lifted and the yoke cast off by that sovereign medical liberator from bodily ailments, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Heartburn, flatulency, oppression at the pit of the stomach, the presence of bile where it does not belong, are alike remedied by this potent reformer of a disordered condition of the gastric organs and the liver. It is the prince of tonics and stomachics, invigorating at the same time that it remedies. Both appetite and sleep are improved by it. A wineglass before or after meals, and before retiring, will be found an efficient restorative of the ability to digest and assimilate and rest tranquilly. Use it for malarial, kidney and rheumatic trouble and for constipation. For the aged and infirm it is highly beneficial.

BARLEY CROPS BIG OVER IN RUSSIA

FARM HANDS WORK FOR A DOLLAR A WEEK.

They Raise 135,000,000 Bushels and Can Sell It for a Price Proportionate to the Cost of Labor—Can Rock County Farmers Compete With Them.

Rock county farmers are not a little interested in the Russian barley proposition and many requests have come to The Gazette for information. How much barley does Russia raise? Can the Russian peasant compete with the American farmer? What are the wages paid to agricultural laborers in Russia? All of these questions are of interest in the entire northwest. The exhaustive compilation of facts and figures about Russia's industries, made by the Russian government, under the editorship of United States Consul John M. Crawford, for the World's fair answers all these questions.

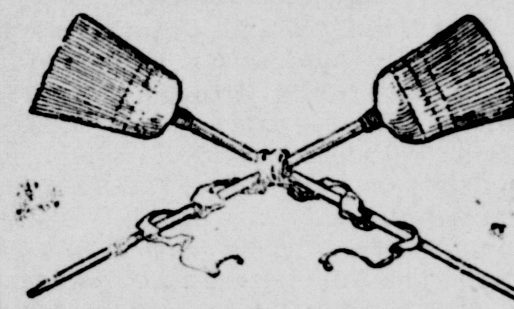

The average area of land devoted to the cultivation of barley in Russia has been during the past ten years about 6,000,000 acres. The number of peasants engaged in the raising of barley was in round figures 3,561,000. It is most widely sown in the extreme northern government of Archangel, where it predominates over all other grains, occupying more than 54 per cent of the whole sown area. This is a very important consideration, for it enables the Russian barley grower to ship their barley at a very small expense to the seaports. Barley can be exported from Russia by way of the Black sea, the Baltic sea and the White sea, from south, west and north.

An Enormous Crop of Barley.

The total average yield of barley in Russia during the past ten years has been 135,000,000 bushels, while the highest amount produced in the United States was 60,000,000 bushels. The average yield of barley per acre in Russia, for ten years past, has been 23 bushels per acre. During the past ten years 20,000,000 bushels of barley have been used annually for seed, 30,000,000 bushels were exported annually to England and other European countries, and 76,000,000 bushels were left for internal consumption. The Russian official statistics show that the per capita supply of barley in Russia for the past ten years, above the amount necessary for seed and exportation, amounted to 92-100 bushels, a little less than one bushel for each head of the population of the fifty governments of European Russia, where barley is grown, that population being about 80,000,000. It is consequently easy to imagine how great the supply of barley in Russia is.

"In the grain trade only two sorts of barley are distinguished," says the same official report, "malting barley and feeding barley. The quality of the first is recognized principally by the color of the grain, the brighter and whiter the better it is considered."

Wages on Russian Farms.

Now let us see what wages are paid to agricultural laborers in Russia: The official statistics contained in the publication, which the Russian commissioners to the World's Fair distributed in America, show that the wages of the men in the barley growing districts of Russia amount to 85 roubles a year ($43) in the southern governments; 51 roubles ($26) in the southwestern governments; 65 roubles ($33) in the southeastern governments; 80 roubles (a little over $40) in the Baltic provinces, and 45 to 47 roubles (23) a year in the provinces of Poland and Lithuania. The agricultural workmen are usually hired by the year, and in addition to this they are usually fed by the employers. The food per year usually costs 40 roubles (a little over $20) per workman, and consequently the Russian barley grower pays from $14 to $24 a year for each laborer. Each farm hand costs him just $1 a week.

No wonder speculators can afford to ship wheat from Odessa to New York and underbid the farmers in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

H. Heinemann, Milwaukee, writes: "One box of Japanese Pile Cure has cured me of a case of twenty-eight years standing, after being treated by New York's best physicians." Sold by Smith's Pharmacy.

FOR THE LADIES.

Salt dissolved in alcohol will remove grease spots.

A gentleman must kiss every lady he is introduced to in Paraguay. It is the custom of the country.

"Well, Anna, have you found the rose for my hair yet?" "Yes, madam; but now I cannot find the hair."

Buss, to kiss; rebuss, to kiss again; blunderbuss, two girls kissing each other; omnibus, to kiss all the girls in the room.

He, floundering in the water—Quick, quick; give me your hand! She, coming up the last time—Oh, this is so, so sudden.

Lily—Mrs. Candour intimated the other night that your hair was not your own. Daisy—"Tis false! Lily—That's what she said."

The khedive of Egypt, like the Chinese emperor, takes more stock in his mother's advice than in that of any of his counsellors.

Mrs. Woodruff of Little Valley, N. Y., and Mrs. Howland of Napoli, N. Y., are two regularly ordained Congregational ministers.

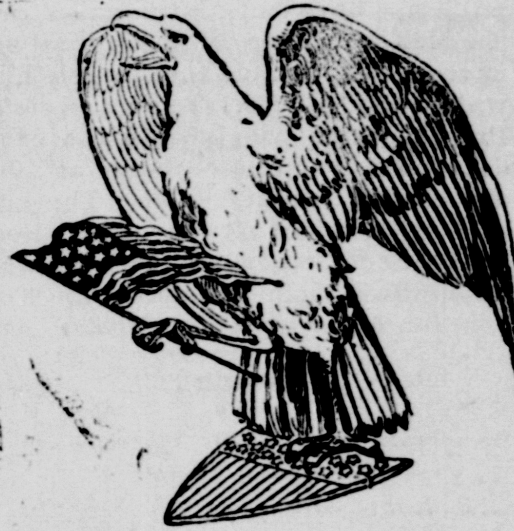

A small mouth, according to a celebrated professor of physiognomy, shows great indecision of character and not a little cowardice.

In Sitka, when an Indian wife has lost her husband by death, she goes into mourning by painting the upper part of her face a deep black.

A woman about to sign a deed, the lawyer asked her whether her husband compelled her to sign. "He compel me!" said the lady; "no, nor twenty like him!"

He, tenderly—Do you believe in love at first sight? She, meaningly—I certainly believe that the more one sees of certain persons the less one likes them! And he changed his mind about proposing to her.

In Holland women and persons of either sex under the age of 16 are now forbidden to begin work earlier than 5 a. m., or to continue at work after 7 p. m., nor can their work exceed eleven hours a day in all.

WORDS AND PHRASES.

The Hungarian of three centuries ago was entitled to wear one feather in his cap for every Turk he killed, hence the phrase in common use among us.

Boo, the exclamation used to frighten children, is a corruption of Bob, the name of a famous Gothic general. It has been used as a terror word for many centuries.

The word bumper, signifying a drink or pledge, was originally a toast to the pope in Roman Catholic countries, drunk in a full glass just after dinner au bon pere.

Pledging a toast originated among the Saxons. As the drinker raised the heavy cup with both hands a friend would stand by him with a drawn sword to prevent him from being stabbed.

Pasquinades took their name from the shop of a Roman tailor named Pasquin, the square in front of which contained a celebrated statue, on the pedestal of which all sorts of squibs and lampoons were posted.

Skeddadle, to express the idea of utter riot, dispersion and confusion, is probably of Irish origin. In a version of the Irish new testament it is written "I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be sgedadool," or dispersed.

Forty years since, "Porte Crayon" was down on Albemarle sound, and told a native that there were men with mouths eight inches wide. The native declared that was a fish-story; Porte reproved him for his incredulity, and pointed out that deductions from known facts proved this statement. "We know," he said, "that oysters must be eaten whole; we know that there are oysters eight inches across the minor dimension; therefore, there must be mouths eight inches wide to take them in, or the beautiful chain of harmony in the universe is broken."

GREAT GAIN SHOWN IN THE 60WER CITY

THERE'S A CHANGE OF 416 VOTES ON GOVERNOR.

Mr. Kimball Carried It by 461 Making the Republican Gain on that Office Compared With Governor Two Years Ago 609—Regular Landslide In Town.

With an upheaval that tossed democratic hopes to the seven winds of heaven, Janesville rolled into the republican column again yesterday. Scarcely so overwhelming a demonstration of public disapproval shown to a political party as the ballots indicated. Janesville has been counted close and was a good fighting ground for both parties. In 1892 Governor Peck, in the great landslide of democracy carried the city by 148, while Cleveland carried it the same year by 119. Great was the overturning. Hon. Fenner Kimball got the heaviest plurality, it being 461. O. D. Rowe, the candidate of register of deeds whose majority for mayor some years ago was less than 100, now gets a rousing plurality of 446, the second largest in the city. Then comes C. N. Nye as county treasurer, his plurality being 414. Major Upham carried the city by 258. This makes a republican gain on governor since 1892 of 416, and on the vote of Mr. Kimball, 609. Figuring Mr. Kimball's vote with President Cleveland's gives the republican gain in the city 580. These tremendous gains show that the city is solid for republicanism and that no democrat need show his head.

Hurrah for the city of Janesville!

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that proposals to receive the county funds on deposit for one year from the first day of January 1895, will be received by the county clerk of Rock county at his office in the city of Janesville up to 12 o'clock m. on the 12th day of November 1894.

Proposals shall state the rate of interest the bidder will pay on daily balances, the interest to be computed and credited to the county at the end of each month, and on condition that such deposits and accrued interest shall be held subject to draft and payable at all times on demand.

W. J. MCINTYRE, County Clerk.

An Optical Delusion.

A gentleman who imagined that he recognized a lady friend advanced cordially and addressed her. "I beg pardon," said he, "but isn't this Miss Greenleaf?"

"No, sir," replied the lady; "my name is Redpath."

"Ah, excuse me, I must be color blind."—Alex Sweet, in Texas Sitings.

The Lines Were Drawn.

Fred—Yes, I like him well enough, Minnie; but how did you ever happen to marry a man a head shorter than you are?

Minnie—I had to choose, Fred, between a little man with a big salary and a big man with a little salary.—South Australia Chronicle.

WANTED-A MAN. Protestant or Catholic

$18 per Week or $75 per Month. JOSEPH R. GAY, Prop't., 56 First Ave Chicago Ill.

Made a Noise in the World.
 "What became of the Hodgkin boys?" asked a New Yorker of a friend, upon returning after many years' absence, to his old home in the country.
 "Wal, Jim's runnin' the old farm, and Tom's preachin' in the south, and Billy's tendin' the post office at Waverly."
 "There was another," remarked the city man. "Wasn't his name Ed? He went west. Was anything ever heard from him?"
 "Heard from him? Yes, I should think so. He's made noise enough in this world. Why, he beats a gong in a railroad eatin' station."—N. Y. Herald.

Found at Last.
 Inventor—I've hit a money-making thing at last. The preachers will go crazy over it and it will sell like hot cakes. It's a church contribution box.
 Friend—What good is that?
 Inventor—It's a triumph. The coins fall through slots of different sizes, and all dollars, halves, quarters and dimes land on velvet, but the nickels and pennies drop on to a Chinese gong.—N. Y. Weekly.

Mary's Little Lamb.
 Mary had a little lamb.
 Which grew to be a ewe;
 It followed her to school one day, and then it realized what a fool it was, for the school was a cuisine college, and there it soon became a mutton stew.
 —Philadelphia Record.

A MIGHTY LONG TRAMP.
 Not an Entire Failure.
 Mr. Newed—Don't feel so badly, darling, because your first pie was a failure. I see a way by which it can make our fortune.
 Mrs. Newed (through her tears)—How?
 Mr. Newed—I'll wear it as a bullet proof breast-plate, and exhibit myself in a museum.—Harper's Bazar.

Looking Ahead.
 Editor—The Eagle will be very glad, sir, to boom the real estate interests of Janesville, without money and without price; but one thing must be understood in advance.
 Promoter—What?
 Editor—When the boom bursts, the Eagle is to have the printing of the mortgage foreclosure proceedings.—Puck.

Not Qualified.
 "It's no use o' me thyrin' to hold a job on that new buildin' they're puttin' up for the government," said Mr. Dolan.
 "Why not?"
 "O'm that absint moinded, O'id be worrukin' before O'i thought."—Wasington Star.

He Wanted to Know.
 Young Wife—Say, hubby, shall I wear a black silk dress with a brown hat, or a black hat with a brown silk dress this winter?
 Hubby—Say, dearest, shall I wear a black silk hat with brown pants, or a brown hat with black pants when I go into bankruptcy this fall?—Texas Siftings.

The Proper Thing to Do.
 Stranger—For heaven's sake, what's that unearthly noise?
 Host—Oh, that's my neighbor's oldest daughter. She has a desire to become an opera singer.
 Stranger (meditatively)—Poor thing! Poor thing! And is she being treated for it?—Somerville Journal.

A Give-Away All Around.
 "I think," she said as she came into the room, "that I will give that poll parrot away."
 "Yes," replied the young man who was calling. "It would be only fair. She has been doing as much for you."—Detroit Free Press.

Proof Positive.
 "Yes," said the physician, "he's dead, poor fellow. His heart has ceased to beat."
 "That last statement settles it," said the friend. "If there's anything about Slippery Pete that has ceased to beat, he's certainly dead."—Life.

Making the Best of It.
 Miss Gotham—Amateur photography is all the rage in New York.
 Aunt Rural—Well, I s'pose most of the rooms in those flats you live in is too dark for anything else.—N. Y. Weekly.

More Convenient.
 "He told me he liked to read my poems by the fireside," said Scribb.
 "Very likely," said Cynicus. "He can throw 'em in without getting up."—Harper's Bazar.

A Bond of Sympathy.
 Miss Huntley—Your dogs have formed a strange attachment toward me. How do you account for it?
 Mr. Sport—It's "like master, like dog."—Truth.

One of the Great Army.
 "How do you live, good sir?" he asked.
 And the patriot, frank and free,
 Replies in song and singing says:
 "My country, 'tis of thee."
 —Detroit Tribune.

Warning to MOTHERS.
 Many internal remedies are being skillfully and glibly advertised, professing to shorten Labor, lessen Pains of Child-birth, etc., and with wonderful inconsistency to regulate menstruation. Common sense should teach any woman that a preparation adapted for MENSTRUUAL DISORDERS had not been prepared for Child-birth. On the contrary, internal remedies at this time may imperil her life. We earnestly say BAWANS of all such; they cannot, at this critical period, do any possible good, and their use may prove fatal. It is only by persistent EXTERNAL treatment while en route, thus relaxing and softening all the parts, that the hour of Child-birth is robbed of its terrors; and no remedy on earth does this but "MOTHER'S FRIEND." ## THIS DAY IN HISTORY

- 1492—Columbus explored the San Salvador river in Cuba.
- 1620—Battle of Prague in the Thirty Years' war.
- 1811—Battle of Tippecanoe; Joseph Hamilton Davis, a noted Kentuckian, killed in the action.
- 1837—Anti-slavery riots at Alton, Ill.; death of Lovejoy, the abolition leader.
- 1843—William Frederick I, king of the Netherlands, died; born 1772.
- 1873—The Virginia massacre; 53 of the crew of filibusters captured on Oct. 31 shot by the Spanish authorities at Santiago.
- 1893—Anarchists exploded bombs in the opera house at Barcelona, Spain, killing 30 spectators and wounding 80.

Like a great tidal wave sweeping across the land was the victory at the polls yesterday. Held back for months and chafing under restraint it gathered volume and strength, until the flood gates were opened and nothing could withstand the irresistible force. While the republican party is jubilant over the result, and in the flush of history will shout and hurrah, it will be noticed that the rejoicing extends beyond party lines, taking in a large class of citizens not identified with the victorious party, but highly gratified with the result. The prosperity of a nation, means vastly more than the success of a party and the greatest good to the greatest number should be the first consideration.

That the American people are fully alive to this fact, and ready to right a wrong when committed, was very forcibly demonstrated yesterday.

This change in public sentiment, and the vindication of principles is very significant. It means more than appears on the surface, for the bitter lesson of a hard experience have been so thoroughly inculcated during the past ten years, that the impression will not be forgotten, and the results will enter into the life of the nation, and contribute to its prosperity for years to come.

Mr. Wilson, the apostle of free trade will have ample opportunity to visit England and tarry indefinitely on congenial soil, while the men of like political faith will realize that America is the best country on earth for American citizens. A revival of confidence and a revival of trade will soon be realized, and while the latter will be hampered by the tariff reform bill, until it can be reached and modified by a new administration, yet the manufacturing interests will adjust themselves in a measure, and labor will find employment.

The nation has occasion to rejoice because a large majority of her citizens are alive to public welfare.

The Returns All In.

Election is over, of course the defeated candidates are disappointed, and the victorious are happy. Thus it will ever be in politics, but not in business. All candidates are alike to us. We will sell just as cheap to one as the other, but a great deal cheaper to all than any one else will sell. We have a stock of diamonds for holiday trade that cannot be surpassed in any diamond house in the country outside Chicago and the large cities.

CHINA PULLED UP BY ENGLAND

SHANGHAI, Nov. 7.—The British officials here have sent an ultimatum to the viceroy, demanding a settlement of the Chung King affair within seven days. The British demands are that Taotai Sheng be dismissed and degraded, the Chung King is to be saluted with twenty-one guns, from the Taku forts and a money indemnity is to be paid to the owners of the Chung King. If these demands are not complied with within the specified time reprisals upon the part of the British fleet are threatened.

The Chung King affair is one of the remarkable incidents of the war between China and Japan and may have serious results. On Aug. 4 last a Tientsin dispatch announced that thirteen Japanese soldiers who had been forcibly removed by the Chinese from the British steamship Chung King were returned immediately upon the viceroy, Li Hung Chang, being notified, and it was added that the viceroy apologized to the British consul. On Aug. 7, however, a dispatch from Shanghai announced the arrival there of the steamship Chung King, and the captain of that vessel gave his version of the affair, which gave it a more serious aspect. The captain said that while his ship was at Tientsin, on the gulf of Pe Chi Li, Chinese soldiers went on board of her for the purpose of seizing Japanese passengers. They found sixty Japanese, mostly women and children, and at once began to hunt them down. The Chinese pursued the Japanese all over the vessel, bound them hand and foot as soon as caught and flung them over on the wharf.

Li Hung Chang eventually, upon the protests of the British consul, commanded the Japanese to be returned on board the Chung King, and ordered the Chinese soldiers who made the raid to be severely punished.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 7.—The Chinese army has been thrown into a panic by the Japanese victories and is still fleeing from the Japanese. The Chinese troops in Manchuria are robbing the natives and committing horrible atrocities wherever they pass. The Japanese, on the other hand, are treating the Chinese well and are consequently received with open arms by the natives who are furnishing them with supplies of various kinds. Viceroy Li Hung Chang has been ordered to Pekin.

FIREMEN'S HEADQUARTERS.

Choice Lays Between Indianapolis, St. Louis and Milwaukee.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 7.—The grand executive board of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen is considering the bids of a number of cities for the national headquarters of the order, and it is expected that a place will be decided upon within the next few days. In September the brotherhood determined that it would be advisable to remove the offices from Terre Haute to a larger city, where facilities are greater for the prompt handling of the business of the organization. Letters were sent to the commercial clubs in a number of cities asking that information be furnished the brotherhood concerning the advantages of their respective places. Grand Master Sargeant says that what the order wants is a place where office rent is cheap, where there is competition in the printing business and where good interest is paid by the banks on daily balances. No bonds are expected. Indianapolis, St. Louis and Milwaukee are in the field, and one of these cities will probably be selected.

Photographer—Now, miss, look as pleasant as you can. Miss Hayseed, indignantly—Lawks me! Ain't I a-payin' you to make me look pleasant?

Ferguson—Miss Highstrikes is quite a stately girl. She takes after her father. Hankinson—Yes, and when I go there, blame him, he takes after me!

Timmins—I called to see about a little poem I left here—"To Phillis" was the title. New Office Boy—Phillis? Two fillies? I guess you want to see de horse editor.

Mamma—Oh, Frank! I've just heard that smallpox is about. Whatever would you do if baby caught it? Frank—By Jove! Never thought of that! Give me my hat! I'll go and get vaccinated at once!

"Forgive me," he pleaded contritely. "I didn't mean to kiss you, but the impulse was irresistible." "Forgive you?" she snapped. "Never while I live! A girl may forgive a man for kissing her, but never for apologizing afterward."

Mother—Where were you during that thunder storm? Boy—Over in the field with the big tree in it. "But I have told you distinctly many, many times, never to stand under a tree during a thunder storm." "I didn't. I sat down."

"He done brought de trouble on hisse!" said Mr. Erastus Pinkley. "I treated him laik er gemman, I did, 'twell he made remahks 'bout me singin'. Den I had ter damage 'is beauty." "What did he say?" "He said dat I had 'er fine tenor voice. On'y my mouf was so big dat de echoes got in and spiled de chune."

COUNTY WON BY UPHAM WITH 3068 PLURALITY

All The Districts Are Accounted For.

A TIDAL WAVE SWEEPED OVER ALL THE TOWNS.

The Whole Republican Ticket From Top to Bottom Has Been Carried By the Republicans In About That Proportion The Vote Varying But Little—Immense Gains For the Grand Old Party.

For Sheriff..... W. H. APPLEBY
For County Clerk..... W. J. MINTYRE
For County Treasurer..... C. N. NYE
For District Attorney..... W. A. JACOBSON
For Clerk of Court..... T. W. GOLDIN
For Register of Deeds..... O. D. ROWE
For Surveyor..... O. B. BLEEDRON
For Coroner..... R. O'DONNELL

We own it all; body, boots and everything else.
The voters gave it to us.
3,068 of them.
That's Upham's plurality in Rock county with all the precincts heard from.

Seldom is such enthusiasm shown at the close of a campaign as was exhibited last night. The Gazette office was open because it was the night for printing the weekly edition. People passing saw the light and flocked in. The mailing force were forced out of the business office by the throng and had to complete their work in another room. Bulletins were read and received with cheers. Outside the blasts of tin horns rent the night air and one o'clock this morning found staid and dignified old gentlemen danced hornpipes and yelled like Indians. It was a great night for republicans.

Rock county farmers have had all the democracy that they want. They showed it yesterday.

Instead of giving the republican ticket a majority of 2,059 as they did two years ago, it is swelled to the neighborhood of 3,500. This is an old time republican majority and places Rock county back near the front and emphasizes the Banner title. The complete returns are not yet made and a tabulated statement cannot be printed before tomorrow, but enough is known to assure a victory of from 3,000 to 3,500.

Sheriff Appleby, with a lead of more than 1,000 in Beloit, leaves Mr. Hogan to wonder where the 3,000 majority came from, while Mr. Kimball with over 600 to his credit, routs the German professor.

Every voting district in the county shows gratifying republican gains showing that old Rock has wheeled into line to stay. Three republican assemblymen and a state senator will represent her in the next legislature. Every county office will be filled by men of like political faith. The victory is complete and an occasion for general rejoicing. There's no longer any doubt about Rock county. John Hogan carried it for sheriff once and T. T. Croft was elected county clerk, but this will not occur again; they've settled the matter for all time.

Outside the city the returns are: Beloit city—Upham 707 majority, Appleby 1,062 majority.

Avon—Upham 101, Peck 23.
Beloit town—Upham 107, Peck 33.
Appleby 103, Hogan 29.

wholesale soup serving over there." Shouts of laughter greeted the speakers and ere it had subsided a small boy stuck his head in the door and called.

"Hogan carries the northern part of the state by seventy-five!" Farmers from all parts of Rock county as well as the crowds of city people made up the audience.

"I couldn't stay home," said one prominent La Prairie farmer, "I want to know all about it."

Lappins Opera House was also filled with a cheering mass of enthusiastic people and when it became known that Janesville and the county had gone republican they began to yell. Tin horns appeared as if by magic and Rock—Upham 85, Peck 103.

Village of Clinton—Upham 155, Peck 63. Appleby 144, Hogan 81.

This gives Rock county complete n governor, showing Upham's majority to be 3,068. The rest of the ticket will not fall behind this figure. Even Appleby for sheriff, as the returns indicate, will have over three thousand majority.

The republicans elect three assemblymen, a gain of one, and give Senator Elect Putnam a good majority to enter Green and Dane counties.

No Time Like Now.

People have been fooled so much they are not hasty about jumping at conclusions when any kind of a sale is advertised. The Red Figure mark down sale that we are conducting is to last sixty days, and people will have plenty of opportunities for judge for themselves as to whether we are in downright earnest or not. So far enough people have been curious enough to call and see what we are doing to keep us on the jump, for seeing means buying. No foolishness about this sale. Everything in the store much marked down. Dress goods fairly walk out. Read large ad J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

Will We Have To Quit Business?

That is the way it looks now. The shoe factory won't sell us any more shoes, and as there are no other "reliable" factories in the county, and we have no credit outside Janesville, we will probably have to close up unless we can borrow some money; however, if we do fail, we will try and have our stock bring 110 cents on the dollar, so it would be better for you to buy now and pay no premiums.

The sale we are conducting on overcoats at $10 each is attracting widespread attention, and well it may. Every overcoat would have cost you $18—60 days ago—they are all this season's make, and the best of goods, no old moth eaten stuff from dago sweat shops and full of disease, but nice first class reliable garments. Our guarantee with every one. If not satisfactory return and get your money. Only $10 each. T. J. Ziegler.

If people patronize home stores they will have no effort to remedy any errors. When we sell a garment and agree to take it back and refund the money we will do it, and not declare we have discharged the salesman who sold it, when the person returns and wants the money. T. J. Ziegler.

BRIEF LOCAL CHIPS.

"The Prodigal Father" is from the pen of Glen McDonough, and seldom has comedy jumped into such prominence. "The Prodigal Father" is what may be called a right down jolly and withal charming comedy. The company will this season introduce some of the latest parodies, songs, bright melodies, catch music and everything else that goes to make a rip-roaring farce comedy. Don't miss this performance at Myers Grand opera house, Friday, November 9.

Mrs. H. G. CARTER, Mrs. F. W. Wheelock and Miss Lizzie Schickler entertained a large number of lady friends at a charming 5 o'clock tea at the home of Mrs. Carter yesterday. After a whist tables were brought forward, Miss Margaret Sheldon, Mrs. T. B. Wiggin and Mrs. F. L. Smith winning the favors. The occasion was one that all enjoyed fully.

Put this in your pipe. Compare the prices you paid in the same block Ladies Goodyear glove storm rubbers at 50 cents. Bay State storms 40 cents, Rhode Island rubbers at 30 cents, Misses' and child's 25 cents, boys' Bay State dull heavy rubbers 50 cents. We are bound to sell the goods. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Do you expect that a free coinage bill will ever be passed? If you are at all certain and desire to make money, the Milwaukee street show window of A. F. Hall & Co., the "reliable jewelers" gives you a very broad hint. You can buy the silver made into spoons, have the use of the spoons and get plenty of interest on your money invested.

HANDSOME stand lamps decorated, 10 cents each. Very handsome stand lamps, nicely decorated, something that will add beauty to any room only 45 cents each. Alaska cut glass, very pretty, cannot be told from the genuine cut glass, and don't cost half as much. The Hub.

GEK WHIZ! Did you hear 'em howl? Our low prices are knocking the wading out of our high priced neighbors. Even the little one-hoss subsidized local factory is scared. We will make the price. What do you care, let 'em wail. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

We guarantee those Pickwick overcoats we are offering for $10 each to be less than any other house in the city pays for them. Better come while our special 15 day sale is in progress. Money back if goods are not as represented. T. J. Ziegler.

We perhaps have not as large or as fine a place as some others, but we know we have as fine a line of china and crockery ware as there is in the city, and we sell it cheaper. We don't ask you a fancy price to pay for high toned fixtures. J. B. Green & Co.

Buggy riding is over for this year. Sleighing is the thing soon to interest you now. We have a fine line of cutters, single and double. We will name the same low prices on them as we do on buggies. Janesville Carriage Works.

We can easily convince every mother and father in the city that we have the best boy's shoe in the market for $1; would cost you $1.25 up the street, just the same shoe. The 25 cents they charge for their knowledge as fitters. Lloyd & Son.

ELECTION being over you want to sit in an easy rocker and rest. We are selling genuine polished oak arm and brace, cobbler seat rockers for $2.85, this week only, and cheaper if anybody cuts the price, Frank D. Kimball.

We received yesterday 50 dozen pair of those fine middle sex hose which sell regularly for 25 cents a pair and will close them out for 15 cents a pair or two pair for 25 cents. T. J. Ziegler.

We never retract anything we say, and if anybody offers you the same quality of rocker this week that we are selling for $2.85 for $1, we will sell for 75 cents each. Frank D. Kimball.

ALL our $18 Pickwick overcoats will be closed out for $10 each—will fit any sized man. We are selling many articles of clothing at 30 cents on the dollar for 15 days. T. J. Ziegler.

ANOTHER car load of Jersey Lily flour came in this morning. It is fine. If such a thing is possible it is much better than any yet received. Special price in 5 sack lots. Dunn Bros.

CORR sole shoes are very desirable this slushy weather. We have a regular $4.00 cork sole shoe we will sell for $2.50 a pair, nothing for fitting. Lloyd & Son, 57 W. Milwaukee.

OUR doors are never closed except when we close them after business is over. We are always open for business and do our own closing. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

We sell a ladies' shoe for $3, that we will guarantee to beat any Marzluft & Co. $4 shoe in the city. Seeing is believing, so come and judge. Lloyd & Son.

CONGREGATIONAL ladies will give a Harvest Home supper at the church parlors Wednesday, November 7, from 6 to 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended.

We will have a carload of fine New York apples here in a day or two. Better either telephone or step in and get prices and leave your order. Dunn Bros.

ELECTRIC blue china ware is the latest. We have the only fine electric blue dinner sets in the city; just came in from the importer, very cheap. The Hub.

The pitiful whine of a whipped puppy is what it sounded like. We set the pace. We sell the goods. We save you money. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

The Light Infantry will give their fifth annual masquerade at the Armory November 22. The public is invited.

RATIFY THE RESULT SATURDAY NIGHT

GOVERNOR UPHAM WILL BE HERE TO HELP.

Congressman Henry A. Cooper is Also Expected and Local Speakers and the Successful Candidates Will Have Something to Say—Everyone in Rock County Asked to Come.

Janesville will ratify Saturday night.

Let the eagle scream.

Captain W. T. Vankirk was the happiest man in Rock county this morning. Why shouldn't he be. He has worked hard for success and success he won. He went to Chicago today but before leaving he gave it out that the republicans of Janesville and Rock county would ratify on Saturday night. The Imperial band will be hired and all the candidates and local speakers are expected to take part. Governor Upham will be here and an invitation has been sent to Congressman Cooper and he will doubtless come. The opera house will be secured for the meeting if possible but but Manager Stoddard was out of town today and could not be seen. If the opera house cannot be secured some other large hall will be provided.

DR. NORMINGTON PAID FOR A SHOT.

Fine of $5 and Costs Imposed For Firing at Herman Kath's Dog.

The case of the city against Dr. Clara Normington was called in the municipal court this morning, she being charged with violating a city ordinance, by shooting at a dog within the city. The plea of "not guilty" was withdrawn and the plea of "guilty" substituted, whereupon the court imposed a fine of $5 and costs, all amounting to $8.15.

WHAT DREAMS MAY COME.

Haunting me ever, there comes and goes
A line from an old song's tender close.
Its burden the saddest—the saddest, too.
For the altered lives it has echoed through—"Love, had you loved me!" The words are few,
But through them an infinite passion flows.

"Love, had you loved me!" Perhaps the key To many a grief this thought has been.
To a sorrow that stirs at the magic strain
And steps from its prison, barred in vain.
To crush with the old, relentless pain
The heart that has guarded it faithfully.

Ah, fondest and truest, whose brown eyes
Shine
With the tenderest lovelight, I am thine
Forever, then heart of my heart, and yet
The breath of an April violet
Wakens a longing, a deep regret
For eyes as blue, that were never mine.

"Love, had you loved me!" what life would be Attuned to that passionate melody!
Soft hearts untroubled, that must still repine
For the draft unloosed of love's rich wine,
Bitter the memories that haunt this line
Of "Love, had you loved me!" so mournfully.
—Ella M. Sexton.

A MAN OF PREY.

Toward Singapore, out of the sunset glare, a long, slashing schooner came spanking in before the southwest monsoon at a pace which procured for her from prahu, lorecha and sampang an uncommonly wide berth. Off Pulo Pan-jan, however, the stranger put his helm down, got in his square canvas and went away, close hauled, west by north along the coast.

"See that, Sam?" and Proddy of Proddy & Newman let his cheroot go out as he gaped after the flying schooner.
Proddy had been over to Bintang, and Sam was skipper of his little steam yacht.

"Aye, sir, I see that, and I see the reason of it, too," and Sam pointed to a streaming wisp of yellow at the top of a headless palm on Panjan point.
"Schooner hauled her wind the instant that bit o' bunting went aloft."

"Private signal, eh? And quarantine colors too! Devilish odd! Don't concern us, though!" and Proddy, the pot bellied, lit another Manila.

Over the domestic establishment of Simon Proddy, Esq., presided a lady who rejoiced in a stearine complexion, a velvety eye and hair for length and blackness like unto a horse's tail, but who, despite French habiliments and an English education, was a China woman pure and simple.

"A wonderful woman, sir!" would Proddy say. "Worth any half a dozen white women I ever knew! And the best of it is that her sisters and her cousins and her aunts are God knows where! Couldn't quite stand them, you know!"

But, all unknown to Proddy, his brevet wife possessed a father—a sophisticated old sinner, who dabbled with ambitious irons in mysterious fires and carried about as much rascality to the square inch as any in Singapore. And little thought Proddy, when he one day ordered off his premises a doddering, old, spectacled Chow, that into that astute brain of Mrs. Proddy's respected parent there had that very moment been born a scheme for the conversion into a valuable security of his, Proddy's, substantial person.

Well, up the old Singapore strait the mysterious schooner had let go her anchor. In here, between the back of the island and the mainland, the sou'- wester came but faintly, and the Raphael H. Semmes, under lee of Tanjong Belu, lay still and silent upon an ink pallor. Her foremast showed no "riding light," nor through the tarpaulin blinded skylight could come any glimmer from below, where lounged a frock coated and pot hatted little man of slender build and mild, reflective eye. There wasn't much to indicate the most reekless desperado the archipelago had ever seen—a deserter from the famous Alabama during her visit to the strait in 1865. Crocky Dixon had since sailed slap through many a law of many a nation, and, though report perhaps exaggerated in asserting that he ought long ago to have adorned a yardarm, it was certain that he hadn't acquired his pleasing appellation for nothing. But now the Crocodile, with a black trichinopoly in its jaws and a bottle of Madeira at its elbow, appeared "a gentle beast enough and of an excellent conscience," a fact which, to those who knew the reptile best, boded very ill for somebody.

"At here, master, now come. Very great thing to want to settle at now quick."

Away among the jungle, toward the back of the island, Proddy had a gambler plantation, the overseer whereof was Whang Lo, and Whang Lo's English, as above presented, Proddy understood well enough. But what he didn't understand—as he told the lemon tinted Mrs. Proddy—was what the devil it could be that required his presence in such a hurry! If it was another coolly nabbed by a tiger, he'd wake the authorities up to some purpose! The brutes were breeding on the island like rabbits, and the reward wasn't quarter big enough!

About an hour after Proddy, growling thus, had departed into the darkness, Mrs. Proddy, idly turning over Whang Lo's screed, discovered on the back thereof three tiny Chinese characters, of which—so far had English displaced her hereditary language—she understood but one. That one, however, was enough—it signified "danger!"— and in three minutes Mrs. Proddy was on her way to the nearest police tannah.

"Do not come!" translated the old Javani sergeant—"Danger!—the crocodile! The true word, this, on back!" he added promptly. "Bad men make he write the other—this when nobody look, he put, so Missa Proddy no come!" And then, with Mrs. Proddy, the acute old man sent off a peon to the central office.
Here she had a short interview with the superintendent, who, in turn, had, 20 minutes later, a short interview with the lieutenant commanding her majesty's gunboat Tiekler.

"Oh, that ruffian Dixon!" Lieutenant Dawson said. "Why, we're getting steamed up now to go around and see what he's about at the back of the island!

What d'ye make of this Proddy business?"

"Case of ransom, I take it! This Dixon's brought off something of the kind before up Penang way. They've nabbed old Proddy at his plantation by this time, I expect, and, if they can, they'll run him over to some den on the Bornean coast and keep him till government or the merchants come down with something handsome. The so-called Mrs. Proddy's father is about the biggest scoundrel in Singapore, and I fancy he's in this job with Crocky. If so, the negotiations would be made through him—but, meantime, it's your own part to burst up this pleasing little arrangement!"

Old Proddy—for all his stomach—defended himself like a paladin and had to be knocked on the head with a boat stretcher, so that he knew no more until, peeping through a port at break of day, he saw a misty shore slide slowly past him, as before a gentle air the schooner stood eastward under every stitch she could spread.

"That shore, Proddy, Esq., is Obin island, from which little skunkstuncance you'll judge that we're a-standin to the eastward out of this here hell trap of a strait of yours. An, as to what we're a-takin you, Proddy, Esq.,—that you'll find out before you're a powerful deal older!"

"You'll have the Tiekler after you before you're much older!" snorted the astounded Proddy.

"Hardly that, Proddy, Esq.! You see there won't be no muss made about you before this evening, and, as we'll catch the monsoon strong again in the offing, your footy little smoke pot of a Tiekler will just hev the hull universal ocean to overhaul for us by to-mor—Great Jefferson!" and down went Crocky's jaw, as, glancing through the port, a slender trail of smoke led down his eye to a little white hull just rounding
Franklin point.

In three seconds Crocky was on deck
—rapid, resolute and cool. "Chased sooner than we expected, lads! No get away now with Proddy, Esq.—but, without him, I guess we'll fix it! Get the dingy over the side—smart, now!
We'll send his friends on a little excusion to rescue him from a wat-tery grave!"

Within three minutes the dingy was adrift, with a bit of canvas set for'ard, and Proddy—lest he should dowse it—lashed to a ringbolt in the stern sheets.
The resourceful Crocky, bringing the wind upon his port quarter, stood away due north, between Obin and Tukang.

Aboard the gunboat there was no hesitation. Reluctantly a course was shaped for the little waif, scarce visible now against the sunrise, as faster and faster the freshening wind drove her out to sea, so that by the time the drenched and stiffened Proddy had been hoisted aboard the Tiekler the namesake of the Alabama's captain was being warped into a winding offshoot of the Johore river, wherein, with topmasts housed, she lay snug till dark. Then, with the ebb, she dropped down again to sea, and sunrise found her well away into the gulf of Siam.

Mrs. Proddy had her reward in two installments. The first when before high heaven the grateful Proddy confirmed her wifely status; the second when, by the orders of the secret society of which her estimable parent was an ornament, her cook, a member also of the "hoey," mixed something with her morning coffee that speedily made of Proddy the inconceivable widower he is to this day.

letin.

Important Facts.

If you have dull and heavy pain across forehead and about the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped and followed up by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh; and should (immediately) resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure.
The remedy will give instant relief.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth,
Be sure and use the old and well-tried remedy
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bot-

MOTHERS

and those about to become mothers, should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription robs childbirth of its terrors, and renders it safe for both mother and child, by aiding nature in preparing the system for parturition.
Thereby "labor" and the period of confinement is greatly shortened. It also promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

Hints For the Toilet—Cosmetics and Hair Dyes Not Fashionable.

White and straw color are as fashionable as ever, no longer for out of door gowns in their entirety, of course, but in the trimming and accessories, and also for tea gowns, reception and ball costumes.

An eminent Parisian authority states that it is necessary for blue eyed women to weep from time to time in order that their eyes may retain their beauty. So all fair ladies who have no trouble of their own would better borrow some, with interest of tears payable every two weeks.

Women who object to the haircloth petticoat as being uncomfortable and unsightly will find an efficient substitute for it in the old fashioned quilted and wadded skirt. This may be made of silk and padded with down, in which case it is very light in weight and holds the dress skirt out in the desired manner. The wadded portion should not extend above the knees.

Cosmetics and hair colorings are going out of fashion. Of course a certain proportion of persons will continue to employ them, but the use of hair bleach, face enamel, bistre and eyebrow pencils is no longer "good form," as our English cousins would say. Theorists may assert that these adventitious aids were never good form, but the fact remains that many women of high social position "make up" as overpoweringly as a fifth rate actress. Now it appears that nature is authorized to have her innings—if she can get them.

Certain writers on matters of the toilet persist in recommending the use of an extremely coarse, rough towel for the hands and face. This is a mistake. A towel of moderate coarseness is proper for the bath, but as the hands and face are washed several times a day and are, moreover, continually exposed to the air they do not require violent friction and are apt to be rendered rough thereby.

A new walking gown, of which a sketch is shown, is made of lizard gray cloth. The skirt has a draped tablier bordered with a band of myrtle green velvet headed by a line of jet. The corsage is trimmed with narrow jet and has a guimpe composed of alternate stripes of gray silk and green velvet. The upper part of the sleeve falls open to show a puff similar to the guimpe. ## STYLISH MILLINERY.

Bewildering Variety of Shapes, Tints and Materials—Gold Ornamentation Popular.

Capotes are exceedingly small this winter. The reigning bonnet requires but a trifle of trimming, but that trifle must be perfectly put on. Toques, also small, are to be much worn, but hats are large and heavily loaded with plumes and other decorations. For carriages wear there are no limits to their size and fantastic arrangement, but for ordinary street wear extremes are not permissible.

The poke has made its appearance among the new shapes, but it is to be avoided by the majority of women over 20 years old. For children and young girls it has a quaint effect, but it is a trying style for most women.

Chenille is used for trimming again, and double faced ribbon having the two sides of different colors. Velvet and satin are also employed, as is lace of various kinds. Jet has lost none of its popularity, while gold in the shape of fillets, crowns, wings and ornaments bids fair to be the most conspicuous feature of the season's millinery. Colors are often incorporated with it, giving an extremely rich effect. Ostrich plumes are much favored, and flowers also are worn. In fact, fashion includes almost all known trimmings in her list this winter and gives an unusual opportunity for everybody to be suited.

Among the new forms in which chenille is shown is that of galloon, woven in a network pattern. It is used to cover hat shapes or to form the crowns of small bonnets, beside being employed as trimming in various ways.

Accordion plaiting has at last made its appearance on hats, many of the latest importations having bows thus arranged, secured in the middle by buckles or other ornaments.

Felt hats are seen in all colors and are twisted into all conceivable shapes by the ingenious milliner, who varies the twist to suit the face of the individual customer.

An illustration is given of a very large velvet hat. It is trimmed entirely with plumes, which are held together in front by an immense paste buckle. JUDIC CHOLLET.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

THE MAINSPRING OF HER LIFE.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

Few people realize this.

What can she do, where can she go, so long as that dreadful back-ache saps both strength and ambition?

She cannot walk or stand, her duties are heavy burdens, and she is utterly miserable.

The cause is some derangement of the uterus or womb. Backache is the sure symptom.

For years Sarah Holstein, who lives at 7 Perry Street, in Lowell, Mass., suffered with falling of the womb. The best doctors failed to relieve her, and as a last resort she purchased six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Now she is a well woman.

The dreadful pain in her back stopped after taking the second bottle. She wishes she had taken it sooner, and saved both money and years of suffering.

This Vegetable Compound is the one unfailing remedy for such troubles. A woman discovered it and gave it to woman.

A Few Facts.

For several months a certain shoe house in Janesville has seen fit to make reference to us in many of their advertisements as "The Other Shoe Firm in our Block," quoting prices not only on his own wares but fixing prices to suit their convenience, on our goods. We stand ready, if called upon, to at any time make affidavit, if necessary, that in every instance where they made comparison between their shoes "either as to style, price or quality," and our goods, they published falsehoods, not innocently, but with full knowledge of the incorrectness of their statements. For instance: The "7 Button Wonder," so called a wonder only from the fact that shoes costing but $1.75 a pair at wholesale, made in imitation of shoes worth $3.50 should be sold for $2.48 by people who would have you believe that they do business honestly. Shoes advertised for $3.50 costing but $2.50 a pair at wholesale, equal to their neighbors goods at $5.00. We are called upon to make these statements in justice to ourselves. Such profits as these would be highly satisfactory to any retailer. Marzluff & Co. are the home manufacturers referred to in their ads., and are the firm who makes these shoes. We publish these facts with their knowledge and consent. Marzluff & Co. will bear us out in our statement that these so unwisely advertised shoes are made by them and are the cheapest and lowest grades of shoes made by them. Such wilful misrepresentations as has been indulged in by the above referred to shoe house, reflect not only upon any dealer who handles the best goods made by Marzluff & Co., but grossly misrepresents the factory itself. BECKER & WOODRUFF.

Men's genuine hand welt shoes, Geo. E. Keith's, sold everywhere at 3.50 $5.00, go at 3.00
Men's hand welt line, made by Niles & Wilbar, a $4.00 line, go at 2.00

Our War Horse in lace and congress, a regular fire eater, go at 1.25
The World's Best, a magnificent production, could be sold at $2, go at 1.25

WE REPRODUCE THEIR EFFORT. Grand isn't it, 47 lines. Let's see—10 cents a line, $4.70. If they will give us one like it every day, we will publish. Thanks.
